EDITORIAL OBJECTIVES

The EER's primary objectives are to provide a forum for exchange of ideas and research findings in all facets of the economics of education; to encourage the development of sound theoretical, empirical and policy research, demonstrating the role of economic analysis in the solution or improved understanding of educational problems and issues; and to provide from time to time book reviews, review articles and literature surveys as a service to the readers. The EER encourages submission of full-length articles, communications (comments, notes and shorter articles) and proposals for book reviews or review articles. Brief notices of interest to the readers, reports on work in progress or abstracts of completed research will be included, depending on the availability of space.

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

1. Papers submitted for publication should be submitted in quadruplicate to the Editor, Elchanan Cohn, Department of Economics, University of South Carolina, Columbia, SC 29208, U.S.A. Proposals for book reviews should be sent to C. G. Williams, Book Review Editor, Department of Economics, University of South Carolina, Columbia, SC 29208, U.S.A.

2. Manuscripts must be typed on one side of the page only and must be double-spaced, with two-inch (five-centimetre) margins on all sides.

3. Manuscripts will not be considered for publication if they have been published before or if they are concurrently under review by another journal or publisher. Papers accepted for publication must not be published elsewhere without the consent of the Editor and Publisher.

4. All manuscripts should be prepared in accordance with the journal's style, which is outlined below.

5. The title page should contain: (i) the title of the article, which should clearly outline the nature of the subject; (ii) a short running head of no more than 40 characters (including spaces), placed at the bottom of the title page and identified; (iii) the names and addresses of all authors; (iv) the name and address of the author responsible for correspondence and to whom requests for reprints should be addressed; and (v) any source(s) of support in the form of grants.

6. Papers must contain an abstract briefly summarizing the essential contents; this should not exceed 100 words.

7. Illustrations should accompany the typescript but should not be inserted in the text. All figures, charts and diagrams should be referred to as 'Figures' and should be numbered consecutively in the order that they are referred to in the text. All figures should be submitted in a form suitable for direct reproduction; therefore original figures or glossy prints should be provided. It is not possible to reproduce from prints with weak lines. Illustrations submitted should normally be about twice the final size required. A list of the figure captions should be typed on a separate sheet at the end of the manuscript.

8. Tables should be so constructed as to be intelligible without reference to the text, with every table and column being provided with a heading. The approximate location of figures and tables in the text must be clearly indicated.

9. Acknowledgements should appear on a separate sheet at the end of the written section before the notes.

10. Short footnotes may be included at the foot of a manuscript page. Longer notes should be numbered and grouped together in a 'Notes' section at the end of the text. The note number (1, . . ., 5, etc.) should be inserted in the text where appropriate.

11. All references to other papers, books, etc. should be listed in alphabetical order at the end of the paper. In the text the author(s)' name(s) and date of publication should be given, e.g. (Jones, 1975); (Jones and Smith, 1974); (Jones et al., 1979); (Smith, 1980a); (Smith, 1980b);. . . as shown by Dale (1982).

    In the reference list all references to articles in journals should contain: the names and initials of all authors, the year of publication, the title of the paper, the name of the journal abbreviated according to the World List of Scientific Periodicals (4th Edn) (1963–1965), 3 vols. London: Butterworths, the volume number and page numbers; for articles within books the Editor(s)' name(s) and the town and name of the Publisher should also be given:

    TREIMAN, D.J. and TERRELL, K. (1975) The process of status attainment in the United States and Great Britain. Am. J. Sociol. 81, 563–583.

    KAY, J.A. and KING, M.A. (1980) The British Tax System. Oxford: Oxford University Press.

    HANSEN, W.L. and WEISBROD, B.A. (1971c) A new approach to higher education finance. In Financing Higher Education: Alternatives for the Federal Government (Edited by ORWIG, M.O.), pp. 206–236. Iowa City: American College Testing Program.

12. Authors of accepted papers are responsible for proof-reading and must return the proofs directly to Pergamon Press without delay. Delayed return of proofs may result in the manuscript being dropped from the scheduled issue. Corrections to proofs must be restricted to printer's errors; any substantial changes other than these may be charged to the author.

13. Twenty-five reprints of each paper will be supplied free of charge. Additional reprints can be obtained at a reasonable price, provided that they are ordered when the proofs are returned, using the form provided.

14. All material will be discarded 1 month after publication unless specifically requested by the author to be returned.
